

KANSEI Engineering International, Japan Society of Kansei Engineering

Call for Papers for the Special Issue on KANSEI Robotics

Due to the number of requests, it was decided to extend the deadline of the submission of papers to the special issue on KANSEI Robotics of KANSEI Engineering International, the English journal of JSKE. The new deadline is

February 29, 2008

Papers on the following topics but not limited to are solicited for this special issue (please refer to the original CFP for more details):

Robot emotion	Coexistence of human and robot
Construction of robot KANSEI	Welfare applications
Expression of Robot KANSEI	Applications to social systems
KNASEI Control of robot	Applications to universal design
Human Robot Interface	Applications to information technology
KANSEI sensing for robotics	Business applications
Human KANSEI detection	Applications to entertainment
KANSEI processing for robotics	other applications

New Deadline: February 29, 2008 (Review starts immediately after receipt of papers)

Formats: Please follow the rules of the English paper submission of JSKE

(Please include the following note on the top page: For the Special Issue on KANSEI Robotics)

Guest Editor: Ken TOMIYAMA (Chiba Institute of Technology)

Contact: tomiyma.ken@it-chiba.ac.jp

Supported by the KANSEI Robotics Division of JSKE